

UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO
FACULTY OF LAW
BACHELOR OF LAWS EXAMINATION, YEAR-II, 2024 (Repeat)

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW II
Continuous Assessment II

Question:

An academic institution, the “Institute for Peace and Governance”, is organizing an international conference focusing on “models of power-sharing in multicultural societies”. As a legal researcher on power-sharing mechanisms in Sri Lanka, you are invited to deliver a presentation on "The Role of Power Sharing in Promoting Inclusivity of Multicultural Societies in Governing Bodies." You may choose any two jurisdictions of your choice, other than Sri Lanka, for your discussion.

Instructions to candidates:

1. The assignment mode is individual presentation and viva.
2. The duration of the presentation will be 10 minutes.
3. You may use PowerPoint slides or other forms to support your presentation.
4. The presentations and viva will be held on 5th of November 2024 from 1.30 p.m. onwards.

Intended Learning Outcomes:

At the end of this assignment component, candidates will be able to,

1. analyse the relevancy of multiculturalism in power-sharing mechanisms
2. compare and contrast how different power-sharing models accommodate the inclusivity of multicultural societies

Marking Guideline

Marking Criteria Criteria	Allocated Marks
Presentation
Identification of different power sharing models	1
analysis on the relevance of multiculturalism in power-sharing mechanisms	2
compare and contrast how different power-sharing models accommodate the inclusivity of multicultural societies	3
Presentation Skills	2
Viva	7