

Short Course on Parliamentary Procedures and Processes

Projected Hours - 08 hours

Applications are invited from third-year and fourth-year undergraduate students of the Faculty of Law to participate in the Short Course on Parliamentary Procedures and Processes. The project is facilitated by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and coordinated by the Legal Research Unit of the Faculty.

Seventy-five undergraduate students will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis. At the end of the course, students who complete it will be awarded a certificate. The exact venue of lectures and dates will be notified later.
