

NOTICE

This notice is addressed to students who have not met the minimum attendance requirement necessary to be eligible to sit for the Year II Semester I End-Semester Examination - 2026.

Please check the following list containing the attendance percentages, and the relevant students are hereby required to submit their appeals as follows:

- Students with attendance percentages between 60%-69% should submit their appeals to the respective Departments on 27th May 2026.
 - Appeals relating to Criminal Law II and Constitutional Law II to the Department of Public and International law
 - Appeals relating to Family Law II and Law of Property to the Department of Private and Comparative law.

- Students with attendance percentages between 51%-59% should submit their appeals to the Dean's Office on 27th May 2026.

- Students with attendance percentages below 50% are required to appear before the Appeals Board for Examinations of the Faculty of Law on 29th May 2026 at 12.00 noon at the Board Room, Faculty of Law.

Students must submit their appeals and/or appear before the Appeals Board with the following documents:

- Written appeals addressed to the respective Heads of the Departments (60-69%), the Dean of the Faculty of Law (51-59%), and/or the Appeals Board for Examinations of the Faculty of Law (below 50%); and
- All relevant supporting documents, valid evidence, and proof in support of the appeals.

All students with attendance percentages below 70% for any subject should be prepared to appear before the Appeals Board on 29th May 2026, if required to do so at short notice.

Failure to submit the relevant documents and/or appear before the Appeals Board on the specified date and time will result in the student being deemed ineligible to sit for the examination.
